GLAD THERE IS NO JAP WAR

"I didn't hear any war talk in Japan," said Pyrrus Freeman of the S. S. China, which departed for the Coast on Monday, "and I am mighty glad of it. I want to tell you that we don't want any war with Japan just now. If this San Francisco business resulted in war it would mean that we would get an almighty good licking on the Pacific. You people in Hawaii would be gobbled up in a minute and there would be no driving of the Japanese out of the islands. As for the Philippines, they would go too. It would be a mighty good thing if we could lose the Philippines, but we don't want any nation to take them away from us."
